DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-5, 12, 15-19, 34, 39, 43-50, 55, 59-62 and 75-81 are currently pending. Claims 75-81 are newly presented in the response received 12/10/2007. Claims 1-5, 12, 15-19, 34, 39, 43-50, 55, 59-62 and 75-81 have been examined and are allowable as explained below.

Response to Amendment

2. Applicant's amendment to the specification has overcome the objection set forth in section 4 of the previous Office action mailed 7/23/2007. Accordingly, said objection is withdrawn.

3. Applicant's amendment to the claims and arguments in support thereof (see, for example at least page 11 of the 12/10/2007 response) have overcome the rejection set forth in section 6 of the previous Office action mailed 7/23/2007. Accordingly said rejection is withdrawn.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments, see for example at least pages 13 and 14 of the response filed 12/10/2007, with respect to the rejections set forth in sections 8-11 of the previous Office action mailed 7/23/2007 have been fully considered and are persuasive. Accordingly, the rejections of said sections 8-11 have been withdrawn.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

5. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Applicant's inventive concept is the combination of an open and sealed bid process. The invention requires the user's bid to comprise two components, an "open" (initial, public) bid and a "sealed" (firm, private) bid wherein the sealed bid would attain the time date stamp of the open bid as long as it fell within a range predetermined by the auction rules (which are determined by the auctioneer, auction participants, etc.). This novel technique allows participants of the auction to better "guess" what other participants sealed bids are since participants would NOT be able to retain their bid time stamp if the sealed bid fell outside of the aforementioned predetermined range. (It is known in the art that bid time stamps are important for, example, determining allocation of auction winnings and in determining "tie breakers") However, it is this novel ability to have at least an indication of the actual range of bids of other participants AND the single clearing price of the auction being based upon the sealed bids and their associated bid time stamps (which are determined by whether the sealed bids fell within the predetermined range of the open bid) that the art of record fails to teach or make obvious through any combinations thereof.

Applicant's invention requires:

NOTE: The following explanation is based on new claim 75. Claim 1 requires AT LEAST the same limitations worded differently as indicated by the "()" surrounding certain terms set forth below.

A. "the private (firm) price component receives the time stamp of the public (initial) price component if the private price component comes within a predetermined range from the public (initial) price component."

The notion of a predetermined range that determines entitlement to the time stamp of the public (initial) price component distinguishes Applicants' invention over the art of record.

B. "basing the clearing price on the private (firm) price components and associated time stamps."

None of the art of record teaches or makes obvious the use of the COMBINATION of utilizing the private price components AND associated time stamps (wherein the associated time stamp given to the private (firm) is determined by whether said private (firm) price is within the predetermined range of the public (initial) price as required by limitation A above) in determining the clearing price.

6. This statement is not intended to necessarily state all the reasons for allowance or all the details why the claims are allowed and has not been written to specifically or impliedly state that all the reasons for allowance are set forth (MPEP 1302.14).

7. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
